

Monique (Mo) George

Community organizer that has gone from union organizing to grassroots organizing around social issues especially those that effect the LGBT community. Mo has also done work ranging from development, programming, events and volunteer coordinator and enjoyed it all. Future goals are to continue to organize and assist people with finding their voice.

Specialties: Community organizing and Volunteer training, Development, Program development and event planning